An act to amend Section 37222 of, to add Sections 37222.10, 37222.11, 37222.12, 37222.13, 37222.14, and 37222.16 to, and to repeal Section 37222.5 of, the Education Code, and to add Section ~~6722~~ 6723 to the Government Code, relating to Ronald Reagan Day.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2412, as amended, Tran. Ronald Reagan Day.

Existing law designates specified days as having special significance, and specifies how the days of special significance should be observed in public elementary and secondary schools and educational institutions.

This bill would express findings and declarations of the Legislature relating to Ronald Reagan.

This bill would designate February 6 of each year as Ronald Reagan Day, and would encourage public schools and educational institutions to engage in exercises remembering the life of Ronald Reagan, as specified.

Existing law requires the Governor to proclaim various days in honor of a person, status, or an event.

This bill would require the Governor to annually proclaim February 6 as Ronald Reagan Day.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Ronald Wilson Reagan was a man of humble background who worked throughout his life serving freedom and advancing the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesman, Governor of California, and President of the United States.

(b) Ronald Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as the 40th President of the United States of America; the second of which he earned the confidence of three-fifths of the electorate and was victorious in 49 of the 50 states in the general election—a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections.

(c) In 1981, when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated President, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment.

(d) Ronald Reagan's commitment to the nation's children helped lower crime and drug use in our neighborhoods.

(e) Ronald Reagan's commitment to our Armed Forces contributed to the restoration of pride in America, her values, and those cherished by the free world, and prepared America's Armed Forces to meet 21st century challenges.

(f) Ronald Reagan's vision of "peace through strength" led to the end of the Cold War.

(g) Members of the Legislature take great pride in honoring Ronald Reagan for his many contributions to our country and in celebrating his life.
